WASTE ELIMINATED AT THE HIGH SCHOOL

FOOTBALL SQUAD FOUNDING UP INTO AN AGGREGATION OF GOOD MATERIAL

The waste of great quantities of water has stopped the attention of Mr. Silvers at the high school during the past week, and as a solution a few changes were made. The drinking fountains have been changed from the one that are held open constantly, and four fountains ten times more than can be consumed in a year with a spring outfit that will be opened for each drink, and that provide only a person can drink. The changes used by the football squad have been so successful that most waste is eliminated.

The football squad will do daily practices in order to gain definite shape and start the team in better condition. All men who have not played the game before, have been made into a team that is doing some practice, line backing, and punting each evening. This team, a little one, will have a little scrimmage with a team from the grammar school on Friday evening. No game will be attempted but plenty of opportunity for good plays given.

George Ryan, a steady young fellow who has played the game before, joined the squad last evening. Ryan has a good kick, is fast and aggressive, and will add to the average weight of the team.

MIDWAY CROSSCUTS BIG QUARTZ LEDGE

IN THE VEIN THIRTEEN FEET AND NO HANGING WALL—VALUES VERY ENCOURAGING

Crosscutting southwest from the new shaft on the 1200-foot level, the Midway Consolidated company several days ago cut the ledge which it had encountered in the shaft, entering it on the footwall side. The values range from 14 to 2500 a ton on the ledge, with some of the rock running up into good commercial grade. Spring to a midship with the machinery, only one shift is now employed, but three shifts will be again at work in a day or two. Superintendent Douglas is looking for better values on the hanging wall.

WOODS CHARGED WITH MURDER OF BATES

Sheriff Harris and District Attorney Carlisle have returned from Goose Creek, where they went to further investigate the murder of Ollie Bates, the saloon man. They brought with them Billy Woods of that place, who is charged with the crime. The officers believe they have gathered sufficient evidence against him to warrant his arrest, says the Independent. The preliminary examination will take place at Montello Friday.

WEST END PROPERTIES AROUSING INTEREST

ENGINEER REPRESENTING ENGLISH SYNDICATE MAKES INSPECTION OF DISTRICT

George F. Deer, after a visit to the camp, writes in Sherman Daily as follows:

"Accompanied by J. C. Beale, a mining engineer representing an English syndicate for the purchasing of mines in the United States, I visited the Goldfield and Tonopah districts.

"We made quite a thorough study of the surface showings of the Tonopah district, spending several days looking out the different ore bodies, ore masses, fault lines, etc. After visiting several of the outlying districts and going into quite a few mines in Tonopah that are producing a large tonnage of output, we obtained a very fair idea of the disposition and price of the different mines, taking readings from their deepest shafts and from their open pits, etc.

"We worked over and over on the different veins, and were very much taken up with the asset and properties, and did get a lot of work in this district.

"Meeting A. S. Russell, superintendent of the Tonopah Bonanza, we informed him of our mission in Tonopah and were very kindly invited by him to go underground in the Tonopah Bonanza. If we so chose, which we readily accepted, Mr. Russell in the meantime gave us the lines of the property, and after taking readings and doing quite a bit of surface work, we descended into the shaft to a depth of 200 feet. Here we found our deflections made from our surface work and from the formation and veins higher up on the east end we descended out. We found that at a depth of 200 feet the Bonanza was in the same formation that carries the ore-bearing veins of the productive mines on the east end, and that 200 feet in depth in the Bonanza was equal to 1200 feet in depth on the veins on the west end. At the 225-foot level on the Bonanza, our superintendent has set a small cross vein, some fifteen inches in width, which shows mineral, and while not showing any value at present will do so in depth. The formation of the rock here is identical with that of the ore-bearing rock on the east end, and we believe if the shaft is put down 50 or 100 feet further, and then a drift run to the south, that you will encounter a vein that will more than meet with your sanguine wishes should this occur, we would advise you to immediately equip for a great ore deposit, and then connect both north and south.

"We sincerely believe you will have one of an equal, if not one of the best mines in Tonopah. We are of the opinion that greater ore bodies lie to the west and similarly situated as to the ore bodies of Butte, Montana."

DAVE LLEWELLYN HAS RICH ORE IN SIGHT

BRINGS HEAVY BRICKS TO TOWN AND WILL NOW GO AFTER QUARTZ LEADS

Two gold bricks were brought to Tonopah yesterday by Dave Llewellyn, the placer operator at Round Mountain. They were deposited in the Nevada National bank for forwarding to the mint. The bricks are worth in the vicinity of $6000 and represent the final cleanup of the season, the supply of water being exhausted.

In cleaning the bedrock Mr. Llewellyn discovered some rich streaks and seams of quartz and he will sink on them. They are believed to be the source of much of the placer he has been taking out, although there is also an origin for the flow of gold farther up the hill.

AMUSEMENTS

BUTLER THEATER

How a brave young woman battles her way against those of the diploma of a hostile nation, who had saved her husband from a traitor's death in the battle story of George Kline's sensational two-act drama, "The Woman Who Dared," which will be shown at the Butler tonight. It is not a war picture, but a vividly dramatic picture of the sort that led to the catastrophic war in Europe. This production affords its feature play, Miss Francesca Serini, splendid opportunities for the display of her talents, and she has overlooked none of them. For an actress whose efforts have heretofore been confined to position as opposed to physical drama, Miss Serini's brilliant success in this trying role is highly gratifying. The picture, however, contains a number of beautiful emotional scenes which are Miss Serini's forte, and she is fully justified in looking upon this film as her best showcasing triumph. The preliminary show will be "You Know Me, Al," a World Film "baseball" comedy, which will be run ahead of the feature.

Yesterday a William Fox production, "Dr. Ramona," featuring Frederick Ferry and supported with a cast of unparelleled strength. Also Public Weekly, Day week may be returned for any night by phoning the Butler.
